

KING'S MURDERER SAILED FROM HERE AS WAR VOLUNTEER

Was Known in the West as Man of Learning, but Shady Character.

WAITER IN THIS CITY.

Employed at Old Fifth Avenue
Hotel, Where He Often Denounced Ruler He Killed.

CHICAGO, March 20.—Alekis Schinas, slayer of King George of Greece, is believed by his countrymen here to have left Chicago at about the time of beginning of the Balkan war, with a number of volunteers who went from Gary, Ind., and this city. He is said to have been in business in Davenport, Ia., and to have visited often in Chicago.

C. Damascus, a newspaper man, last night told of meeting Schinas in Davenport and said that the descriptions of the slayer of the King and the man known to him as Schinas were identical. "While the name is a common one among the Greeks, there practically is no doubt in my mind that the man who formerly lived here was the slayer of King George," said Damascus. "The man had to give up business because he was disliked on account of being a revolutionist and frequently declared that the King should be killed."

"When I first met the man I concluded that he was unbalanced, although he was highly educated. I interested him in starting a news stand in Rock Island, Ill., and he remained at this until about six months ago, when he disappeared. The man was versed in law and science and told me that he had been a judge in the minor courts of several cities. His brother-in-law told me that Schinas had been accused of grafting in public affairs and that he became a fugitive on this account."

Alekis Schinas, the Greek who assassinated King George of Greece in Salonica, lived for several months in this city. He was employed at the old Fifth Avenue Hotel and is remembered by several Greek residents here.

Erastothemus Charrus, who worked with Schinas in the pantry at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, is now a waiter at the Hotel Belvedere at Baltimore, Md. Charrus said to-day:

"For more than a year we worked beside each other and he told me many of his secrets and confidences. One of his favorite expressions which caused several scraps in the pantry was 'To hell with King George.' He could speak Greek, English, Italian and French fluently."

"Schinas was about five feet ten inches tall and weighed about 175 pounds. He was a fine looking fellow, with a wealth of jet black hair, which flowed over his forehead."

"My old friend had no use for kings and members of the aristocracy. 'He spent his leisure nights on the east side, and he was never so happy as when seated in one of the coffee houses among a number of his associates and denouncing kings and governments. He stated a number of times that it was a shame that 5,000,000 of his enlightened countrymen in Greece, with the noble and glorious history that she possesses, should permit themselves to be ruled by a king. He also said that some day he would return to his native country and convert the people to his ideas."

"Some of the employees at our hotel often jokingly remarked that Schinas would surely get his name in the papers some day by killing a President or a King."

ARRIVES IN ATHENS.

25 CENT "DANDERINE" FOR FALLING HAIR AND DANDRUFF—GROWS HAIR

Don't pay 50 cents for worthless hair tonics—Use old, reliable, harmless "Danderine"—Get results.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application you will say it was the best investment you ever made. Your hair will immediately take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable glow and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.
